Lions' Donation Further Winter Sports Program

Special Week-end Events
Featuring Ice Carnival
Jan. 1, Planned

Given sudden impetus by a donation of $500 from the Antioch Lions club, the lake region's 1940-41 program of winter sports is getting underway in fine style at Lake Antioch.

An improved toboggan slide is being constructed, ski runs suitable for amateurs are being laid out, and the lake surface will be kept clear for skating. Hockey rinks are to be arranged, as teams from other cities have already expressed a desire to meet Antioch teams.

Floodlights which will make possible the holding of night events are to be put into use.

Week-End Schedules

A tentative program of week-end events, dependent to some extent upon weather conditions, has been outlined. It includes the following:

Sunday, Dec. 22—Exhibition speed skating.
Wednesday, Jan. 1.—Winter ice carnival.

Sunday, Jan. 5.—Horse racing.
Sunday, Jan. 12.—Ski races, ski jumping.

Sunday, Jan. 19.—General skating.
Sunday, Jan. 26.—Hockey games.
Sunday, Feb. 1.—Horse vs. car race.
Sunday, Feb. 8.—General sports.

Hockey games will, in addition, be held every Sunday.

The ski runs and toboggan and skating facilities will be open to the public free of charge during the week as well as week-ends. Jack Flanagan has been hired to see that the sports facilities at Lake Antioch are kept in good order, and to act as full time attendant and custodian.

Ice Carnival

The program for the ice carnival on New Year's day will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and again at 8 in the evening.

The crowning of the "Carnival Queen," who will be seated on a throne of ice illuminated with colored lights, will take place in the evening as the climax of the races, skating, (continued on page 10)

Antioch to Have Own Christmas Broadcast

Lion's Public Address System Will Carry Yule Programs

Christmas carols, organ music, and other special yuletide music will be heard over the Lions club public address system in Antioch's business section over the week-end, President O. E. Hachmeister of the Lions club, and Hans von Holwede, director of music in the local schools, announced today.

Three full hour programs will be heard, the first between the hours of 6 and 7 Saturday evening and two programs Sunday—at 11 to 12 a. m. and 6 to 7 p. m. The programs will originate in the Methodist church, the closest point of contact to the public address system, and where use will be made of the large pipe organ for the programs.

The Saturday evening program will consist of the singing of Christmas carols by groups from both the grade school and the high school, organ music by Mr. Von Holwede and the singing of the "Holy City" by Miss Betty Davis.

The Methodist church choir under the direction of S. E. Pollock will be heard at the 11 o'clock program broadcast from the church Sunday morning. There will also be organ music and other features of the church service.

The evening program, 6 to 7 o'clock, will consist of a special musical broadcast including chorus numbers, organ music and special Christmas music.

This is Antioch's first venture in presenting such a program. Tronson and Runyard, owners of the broadcast system, say it will be a success from the engineering standpoint, and local sponsors are looking forward to making the plan an annual event, using other local churches as "studios" in other years.

Tune in. Possibly a fourth one hour broadcast may be heard Monday evening in connection with the Community Party at the village park, the sponsors announced today.

Civic Club Hears Talk by Chief Deputy Sheriff Atkinson

"Speed is one of the greatest contributory causes of automobile accidents," Chief Deputy Walter L. Atkinson of the Lake County sheriff's department told members of the Men's Civic club at a dinner meeting Monday evening in the Antioch restaurant.

Many accidents which would otherwise be preventable occur because automobiles are going at a speed which makes it impossible for them to be stopped in time, Atkinson told the club members, drawing for illustrations on the findings of the sheriff's department in various cases.

During the course of his talk, which dealt with "General Duties of the Sheriff's Office," he demonstrated the use of various appliances, such as tear gas bombs and safety paraphernalia, used by the sheriff's department in the course of its work.

Forty-two were present.

Will Install Two-Way Radio in Rescue Truck

Jim McMillen the Sponsor for New and Needed Equipment

Antioch firemen and members of the local life saving squad are elated over the announcement by Jim McMillen that he will install a two-way radio in the rescue truck as a piece of permanent equipment.

McMillen, radio engineer and co-designer of the two-way system now being used in the Lake County sheriff's office and other police headquarters with marked success, believes the equipment will greatly increase the efficiency of rescue work and may prove vital in cases where speedy communication becomes a factor in saving a life.

Always in direct communication with the sheriff's or any short-wave police station radio, messages may be relayed to any remote point in the area, McMillen explains.

The rescue truck accompanies the firemen to all rural fires, and a ready communication system will prove an invaluable aid in cases of accident or when additional equipment or help is to be called to the scene.

McMillen and Bert Anderson, associated with him in radio, and who now is employed in the Lake County sheriff's office as radio operator, donate their services to installing the set in the rescue truck, McMillen says. It is believed, however, that this public spirited community will not leave the pair "holding the bag" in the matter of expense for material, and that a way will be found to relieve the men of this cost.

Burglars Take $46 From Nevitt's Tavern

M. F. Nevitt, proprietor of a tavern at Antioch reported to the sheriff's office early Saturday that a burglar had entered his tavern Friday night and had taken $46 in change which he had hidden behind the back bar. He expressed belief that the burglary was the work of someone who had seen him hide the money in this place before.

Pollock to Preside at Masons' Installation

With Samuel E. Pollock as installing officer, assisted by William J. Anderson as marshal; Frank B. Huber, secretary; the Rev. Warren C. Henslee, chaplain and Mrs. Helen Carlson, organist and soloist, the following officers of Sequoia lodge, A. F. and A. M., will be installed this evening in the Masonic temple:

Clarence J. King, master; John Gaa, senior warden; Arthur Larsen, junior warden; Edward S. Garrett, treasurer; Robert Wilton, secretary; Samuel E. Pollock, chaplain;

Kind of inspiring, sitting writing while the Christmas carols are broadcast. Maybe it's just our imagination, but they seem to sound a little more beautiful than usual this year. Makes a person wish there really could be "peace on earth" and "goodwill" among all races of mankind.

PEN-PENCIL OFFER ENDS DECEMBER 24

The Antioch News' popular free gift offer of a pen and pencil set with each year's subscription paid during the period starting November 28 will positively close on December 24.

Many subscribers have asked for the sets, feeling that they are entitled to them by reason of payment made prior to the announcement of the offer. Compliance with such requests would be a discrimination against those who pay subscriptions during the life of the gift offer. Many thousands of subscriptions have been paid to the Antioch News in the past, and to give all of them the free gifts would bankrupt a firm much more prosperous than the Antioch News. To pursue such a course would defeat the primary purpose of the plan which was to obtain needed cash and to bring the subscription list up to date.

Persons whose subscriptions are already paid to date, or are in advance, may obtain one or more of the free sets by the simple procedure of paying one or more year's additional subscription. The payment of new or renewal gift subscriptions for others also entitles the payer to the gift premium. Checks and subscription orders may be sent by mail. No mail orders postmarked later than Dec. 24 will be eligible for the premium.

All offers must begin and end at definite dates. This one must end Dec. 24. The News feels that all readers have been given ample opportunity to take advantage of the gift offer within the dates specified, and so, in accordance with our contract with the manufacturers the offer must close Dec. 24.

The News appreciates the co-operation it has received from readers and has been happy indeed to be in position to reward loyal subscribers with the gifts.

Mayor is Pilot for Santa Claus at Lake Villa

No sir—Santa Claus is not taking chances of being snowbound and stalled on his trip to Lake Villa this coming Saturday where he has an appointment with Lake Villa children in a big program being sponsored by the Lions club, so arrangements were made to have Mayor Jack Van Buren fly old Santa in from Curtiss Airport where he arrives direct from his workshop at the North Pole. This information was received by radiogram from Old St. Nicholas by Grant E. Miller, Lake Villa Lions club president.

The party will start at 7 p. m. at the community Christmas tree, recently dedicated in the park, and end at the grade school gymnasium. Santa will distribute presents to each of the 200 to 300 children expected at the party.

Miller will conduct a brief ceremony at the tree. The Rev. Walter MacArthur, chaplain of the club, will pronounce the benediction, followed with the singing of three Christmas carols by the audience.

Committee members for the party are Charles H. Anderson, chairman, R. H. Gunnarson, Harold Phalen and Earl Hucker, for the Lions club; Mrs. Karolus, Mrs. Fred Bartlett, Miss Ruth Crenin and Mrs. George Poland, for the Parent-Teacher association; Mrs. Gunnarson, chairman of the Lion ladies committee; and Mrs. Gustav Swanson, Mrs. Walter MacArthur, Mrs. Harriet Ballenger and Miss Bennecke, for the Lake Villa Methodist church. Anderson is in charge of publicity.

Artistic Yule Scenes Pictured in Store Windows

Special Themes Are Carried out in Many Christmas Displays

Unusually beautiful window decorations are to be seen this year in the stores of Antioch's main business district.

Contrasting scenes of "Christmas in Europe" and "Christmas in America," in Phillips' store, have attracted much interest. They are the work of 14-year-old Don Phillips, who worked them out from his own ideas. The European scenes show soldiers, sailors and war equipment and machinery in action. The American scene is of quiet, snow-covered country-sides, with churches, homes, and holiday merry-makers.

Over 200 gift items, suitable for all ages, from grandpa and grandma down to the babe in arms, are to be seen in the large display windows at the Williams department store. A Christmas tree and other yule decorations complete the unusually large and attractive display.

A Santa Claus whose eyes really "light up" (with tiny electric light bulbs), is to be seen at the Wilton Electric shop.

A tiny skier on a snowy hillside is the center of a pretty scene in the Style Shop window. Santa and a team of reindeer, hitched tandem, and tiny snow men on skis are featured at Atkinson's restaurant.

"Nativity Scene" The beautiful "Nativity Scene" which has for many Christmases been a specialty of Bob Mann's store seems especially impressive this year, with real sand, tiny palm trees, the wise men and their camels, and the stable at Bethlehem with its sheep and donkeys, the Holy Family, and the manger scene.

A "white scene" with a mirror lake, woodland cabin and white reindeer is on view at the Antioch oil station.

Artistic arrangements of candles, decorated and lighted Christmas trees, wreaths and stars are to be seen in windows practically all of the establishments. Christmas merchandise displays, too, are more than ordinarily attractive this season.

With the gay strings of lights overhead, the decorated Christmas trees in the village park, and the carol broadcasts every half-hour, they help to create a real Christmas atmosphere in the town.

High School Alumni Will Hold Annual Banquet Dec. 27

Plans are being made to accommodate 100 persons at the annual reunion banquet of Antioch High school alumni, to be held at Brass Ball Corners Dec. 28.

Reservations may be made at the Antioch News office, or at King's or Reeves' drug store.

In addition to talks appropriate to the occasion, there will be music and other entertainment.

TED LARSON ELECTED BASKETBALL CAPTAIN

Ted Larson, senior at Jacksonville college, has been elected captain of the varsity basketball team there. Ted is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Larson of Antioch. He has been prominent in student affairs at the college since his freshman year.

Bernard Osmond is expected to arrive Friday from Ann Arbor, Mich., to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Osmond.

Einar Sorenson to Operate Resort in Northern Wisconsin

Einar Sorenson, long active in Lake County Democratic affairs and a former committeeman from Precinct 1 of Antioch township, is moving this coming week to Buffalo lake, near Hayward in northern Wisconsin, where he will operate an 80-acre resort property. Fishing, hunting, and general resort facilities will be provided at his new place.

Mrs. Sorenson will accompany him, but other members of the family will remain in Antioch in charge of his business interests here.

These include a resort at Channel lake under the management of a son, Eddie. A goat milk and egg dispensary on Route 173 has been another of his interests during the past three years.

A son, Raymond, who is justice of the peace here, and a daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Nixon, operator of a beauty shop, are among those remaining in Antioch.

Antioch High School Offers Evening Course

Homemakers and Poultrymen to Enroll in Classes
Starting Jan. 16

Evening adult classes will be conducted at the Antioch Township High school beginning Thursday, January 16, and continuing each Thursday evening for ten weeks ending March 20.

To Study Poultry Problems Farmers, commercial poultrymen, hatcherymen, and dealers are invited to study together the problems of the poultry industry. The course will be under the supervision of C. L. Kuttli, vocational instructor of the Agricultural department of the school. There is no charge for the instruction, and no advance entrance fee.

In past years when poultry courses were offered many farm women were also enrolled and they will be welcomed again this year. Watch the papers for weekly announcements concerning these courses.

Efforts are being made for elaborate instruction. Specialists in their respective fields are being secured to assist.

Homemakers to Meet

Women and older girls will meet with Miss Larimer, head of the Home Economics department of Antioch Township High school. They will discuss various phases of home making including consumer education; clothes and personality; and demonstrations will be given in various fields.

Meetings will start at 7:45 p. m. on Thursdays. Those wishing to enroll in advance may write to either of the instructors in charge or phone Antioch 214.

People who complain that the home town paper doesn't print all the news should be glad it doesn't.

Murder is somewhat illegal, but the community's gay young blades with Model T's who toot the musical car bugles at midnight are some kind of fair game, even if not in season.

A stray cat recently attached itself to an Antioch home and the family named it Roosevelt because they can't get rid of it.

Charlie Cermak of Loon Lake is asking all his friends to lay off on those Rotarian-style back slaps, leastwise until he finishes getting over his appendicitis operation a little better. He met Wrestler Jim McMillen in the barber shop the other day and was kind of afraid to shake hands, he says, on account he hadn't had a chance to warn Jim he was fresh out of the hospital. Charlie is reaping the penalty, as it were, for being customarily in an exuberant, hearty mood, and no mean back slapper himself.

The boss broke out with some items for the Observer this week. It must be the Xmas spirit. Now we can quit three paragraphs earlier. So long till next week. . . or so.
And MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Community Xmas Program Set for Monday Evening

Village Board and Citizens
Sponsor Big Party for Children

Antioch's community Christmas program has been set for Monday night at the Village park at 7:30 o'clock, the committee of village board members headed by Fire Chief James Stearns announced today.

As is the usual custom, it will be children's night, although the grown-ups are invited, too. There will be community singing around the gaily lighted Christmas tree, directed by Hans von Holwede, teachers and groups of singers from the local schools.

Old Santa Claus himself in full regalia, decked out with flowing whiskers and all, will arrive in time to distribute gifts of candy and fruit to the hundreds of youngsters expected to attend, weather permitting. The gifts have been provided by the village board and the Antioch Lumber & Coal company, as has been the custom for many years.

There will be an abundance of gifts, and what is left over will be distributed under the direction of Antioch firemen, Legionnaires and committee members of the village board, who are co-operating in arranging details of the big Yuletide celebration.

Another treat for the juveniles of the community will be the free matinee movie show staged at the Lakes theatre on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the gift of William Nelson and William Lemke.

Red Cross Drive High in Antioch

ships

The Red Cross Roll call just concluding shows that citizens of Antioch responded nobly to the drive for members, according to Mrs. William M. Marks, chairman of the township areas for the Waukegan-North Chicago-North Lake County chapter.

In her report to E. Merle Schriener, Roll Call chairman, given in Waukegan last week, Mrs. Marks pointed out that Antioch stands near the top of the list among the North Lake County communities. It has not only surpassed last year's total of 87 members, but has passed its quota of 100 and now shows a total of 183 members signed this year. This fine showing was most gratifying to Chairman Schriener, who expressed his deep appreciation and extended hearty congratulations to the voluntary workers.

The volunteers in Antioch, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Grace Bratrud, were: Mrs. Louise R. Vos, Mrs. Gertrude Perry, Mrs. Paul Ferris, Mrs. John L. Horan, Mrs. Herman Roseng, Mrs. David Deering, Mrs. Edith Elms, Mrs. Barbara Holbek and Mrs. Walter K. Hills.

In presenting her report, Mrs. Marks expressed her appreciation for the excellent cooperation of the workers and the generous response from citizens in the rural district which, as a whole, exceeded its quota by more than 25%.

The following tabulation of 1939 and 1940 roll calls is supplied by Mrs. Marks from her records:

ROLL CALL	1939	1940

Lake Villa	78	111

Two Are Injured in Automobile Mishaps

Harry Hanke suffered a badly bruised face when the automobile he was driving skidded on a patch of ice on Illinois highway 21 south of Loon Lake and struck an iron fence post.

Hanke was thrown against the steering wheel by the impact. The car was slightly damaged.

Mrs. N. E. James is recovering from injuries sustained when her car skidded and turned over twice as she was driving on Illinois Highway 59 last week. She was badly shaken and received cuts and bruises.

Mrs. William Hurley, who underwent a major operation in St. Theresa hospital, Waukegan, Tuesday, is reported to be convalescing.

Ring Out the Old Message

Time cannot lessen the comfort that comes with the centuries-old words—"Joy to the World." In them we find a message of hope and promise especially needed these days.

Events cannot completely dim the spiritual renewal we find each year in the Christmas story. Men come and go, nations rise and fall, clouds may darken the sky for a time, but the Story of Bethlehem is eternal—growing stronger with the passing years.

We count it a privilege to be able to again extend our Christmas wishes to the many friends we have made in this community, for in friendships we find the worthwhile things of life.

And with all sincerity we extend our greetings, and wishes for your happiness and prosperity.

Source of Strength

"In union there is strength" goes for a group of people with common interests, no less than for a government made up of sovereign states.

Union is the principal underlying agricultural marketing cooperation. One man, dealing alone with a buyer, has little power. He takes what is offered or goes without a sale. A thousand men, working together, can meet the buyer on even terms.

Marketing cooperatives are precisely what the name implies. Producers meet, put up their money and start an organization. They hire executives. The organization represents their collective voice. It is a private business, standing on its own feet—and it works on the soundest of business principles.

A Patriotic Example

Examples crowd on each other's heels of industry's efforts to make the national defense program a real success. While other groups and individuals indulge all too frequently in backbiting and in trying to gain temporary advantages at the expense of real progress, the great majority of manufacturing companies have continually been making notable contributions to our national security and to the creation of a patriotic atmosphere in the United States.

The latest such action which has come to public attention is that of the Eastman Kodak Company, which as a voluntary patriotic measure, recently repeated the World War act of pledging itself to return to the Government any defense profit over 10 per cent of cost.

The company, in announcing this move, added the following clear comment:

"As each of these contracts will extend over a period of several years, any profit up to 10 per cent retained by the Company must be spread over that period.

"Any profit retained up to 10 per cent will, of course, be subject to income and excess-profits taxes, which at present rates will probably amount to nearly two-thirds of any such retained profit."

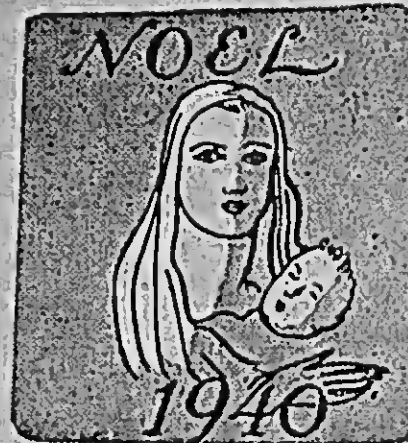

The example is only one among hundreds of forward-looking actions by industry in every part of the country. Through such acts—and America has the right to expect them of other groups as well as the manufacturers—the defense program can be carried out in the spirit for which this nation's people are famous. And only on those terms can we keep in this nation the essentials that are really worth the defending.

Sincere best wishes to all of our many friends on this Happiest of Days.

Buick SPECIAL Sedan,

SUPPOSE, come Christmas morning, you took your wife to the front door, pointed out through the holly wreath — and there let her see a brand-new Buick standing at the curb!

A thrill? You bet — for the whole family! Out of the question? Not at all. Look:

We're not suggesting that you add the cost of a new Buick to your Christmas budget.

But you probably will be buying a new car soon and we are simply proposing that you buy it now, a few months ahead of time — and make this a holiday long to be remembered.

We're suggesting that there's no time like the present to get back of that big FIREBALL Eight — no time like right now to start piling up gasoline mileage economies that run as high as 10% or 15%.

There's no time like holiday time to dress up yourself (and family) in smart, fresh Buick aerodynamic styling, or to introduce your brood to the roomy comfort of this Buicoid-erled traveler.

You can do that — if you act promptly.

A trial ride to give you a hint as to what

Buick can do — a little figuring on your present car's worth (at today's trade-in values, not next spring's) — a little working out of convenient terms — and you'll have a FIREBALL to celebrate this Christmas!

How about it? It's one thing your wife would never expect — and just about the finest gift any man could give his family!

C. F. Barthels Will Celebrate 62nd Anniversary Sunday

A family Christmas dinner at noon and open house from 3 to 7 o'clock will feature Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Barthels' observance of their sixty-second wedding anniversary, which falls on Christmas Day.
The Barthels were married in Tannersville, Pa., Dec. 25, 1878, coming to Antioch nine years later.
With the exception of a period during the World War when Mr. Barthel was employed as aeronautical engineer in the Curtiss aircraft works in Buffalo, N. Y., and 12 years when they lived in Kenosha, they have made their home in this vicinity ever since.

There are five generations in their family, including four surviving of the eight sons and daughters born to them; 20 grandchildren; 15 great grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.
Both Mr. and Mrs. Barthel are 82 years of age, his birthday anniversary being in August and hers in October.
Their sons and daughters include Mrs. Edwin Anderson, with whom they make their home; William L. Barthel, Salem, Wis.; Mrs. F. L. Bristol, Chicago; and Frederick A. Barthel, Chicago.

Sons and daughters who have died are Linford, who passed away a few years ago; Alvin, who died at the age of 9, and Arthur and Ray, who died in infancy.

The "five generations" include the former Mrs. Linford Barthel, now Mrs. Augusta Belter; Mr. and Mrs. Les Crandall; Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Crandall, and the Franklin Crandall's children.

The Barthels celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in Kenosha, with a family reunion in the E. M. B. A. hall in the old Public Service building which has since been torn down and replaced with the new building just opened to the public.

Mrs. Barthel was born Catherine Marie Werkheiser, at Tannersville, and was the daughter of Linford and Eliza Werkheiser.

Mr. Barthel was born in Saxony, Germany, and came to the United States at the age of 10 with his parents, Christian L. and Charlotte Barthel.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

Hitler Seeks Way to End Misadventure Of Mussolini Against Battling Greeks; Farm Group Asks New 'Parity' Loans; Lord Lothian, British Envoy to U. S., Dies

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

PEACE TALK: On Many Fronts

While cannon roared and ships were torpedoed into the deep, talk of peace broke out in Europe. But there was no peace. The fury on land, sea and in the air did not abate, nor did there seem much chance that the peace moves would be successful.

In England a motion was made in commons by Independent Laborites from Glasgow that the government seek a negotiated peace. The government's reply was made by Maj. Clement Atlee, Labor leader, who said the choice was not war or peace but "war and what kind of peace." The motion was defeated 341 to 4. The following day in a Northampton election a candidate who campaigned on a stop the war platform was defeated 1,167 to 16,587.

In Germany there were indications that Adolf Hitler was seeking a formula to bring an end to the Italian misadventure against Greece. The effort was handled by Franz von Papen in Turkey who was to bring that nation into the war.

This was important since any German move to help Mussolini would require movement of Nazi troops through Bulgaria or Jugoslavia and risk involvement with Turkey. But Greece was in no mood for a cessation of hostilities.

In Portugal there were rumors of underground movements seeking peace. Many looked upon this as the most logical step of all, since Hitler would rather trust dictators than controlled Portugal than either the pope or President Roosevelt. Also Portugal has for 400 years been allied to England.

War Goes On

In Italy, Premier Mussolini was continuing reorganization of his combat forces. Added to the retirement list was Marshal Pietro Badoglio, hero of Ethiopia and commander of all armed forces; Gen. Ettore Bastico, governor of the strategic Dodecanese islands; and Admiral Cavignari, chief of the naval staff who had served Italy in five wars.

The "invasion of Greece" begun a month earlier was turning into a debacle. Italian forces had lost all supply bases and airfields in southern Albania. Many of the bases had been built and equipped since Italy took over Albania and all were aimed at carrying on the march toward the Aegean. How far into central Albania the Italians would be forced to retreat before finding a new defense line was uncertain.

In Egypt the British opened an other blitz against the Italians. For weeks the army of Marshal Graziani sat at Sidi Barrani, 75 miles within the Egyptian border. Then the British struck. In the first three days they took 1,000 prisoners, killed the commanding officer of the post and captured his assistant.

All this was aimed at pressing a concerted drive to crack Italy and put a wedge into the Axis alliance. Within Italy there were reports of anti-Fascist riots and murmurs of discontent.

Otherwise on the war front: Britain pressed its case for financial aid from the United States and the movement was highlighted by an expression from Jesse Jones, administrator of the RFC, that he regarded England as "a good risk." Sir Frederick Phillips, British under secretary of the treasury, conferred in Washington on English holdings in the U. S., which may not be sufficient to last another year. The U. S. navy reported its building program was ahead of schedule and one new ship was being turned out every 12 days.

LOSS: One Ambassador

"It's like a plank had dropped out of things," was one official reaction in London to the news that Lord Lothian, British ambassador to the United States, had died in Washington, D. C. Victim of a uremic infection, Lord Lothian was ill but a few days and died at the age of 58 years. Night before his death he had been forced by his illness to cancel an appearance before the American Farm Bureau federation meeting in Baltimore.

However, in a speech written by him and delivered by Neville Butler, counselor of the British embassy, Lothian made a strong appeal for more aid by the United States for the British war cause.

Announcement of his death followed only by a few hours the news of the speech. Popular in Washington circles, Lothian was respected by his superiors and his countrymen at home. Official British sources said quite frankly that his influence in Washington would be sorely missed in these critical days. Lord Lothian came to the United States as ambassador in 1939.

FARM PROGRAM: Loan Advocated

The American Farm Bureau federation, meeting in Baltimore, advocated a program, which through the use of government loans, would peg prices of major crops considerably above current market quotations.

The federation, which has been pro-New Deal, admitted the plan would require congressional revision of the present agricultural legislation. The present law permits loans up to 75 per cent of parity rates. The proposed legislation would make loans to farmers at rates equivalent to 85 per cent.

Edward A. O'Neal, federation president, said parity prices based on current conditions were about $1.12 a bushel for wheat, 13.75 a pound for cotton and 81.5 cents a bushel for corn.

Coupled with the high loan feature would be a system of marketing quotas and heavy penalties for farmers who sold in excess of their allotments.

EPIDEMIC: But Not Serious

Developing in California and sweeping eastward with reduced strength, an epidemic of influenza sent thousands of people to sick beds but at no time became serious in the eyes of medical authorities. Greatest cause of rejoicing among them however, was the fact that the type of influenza was not the deadly one that covered the nation in 1918-1919. The present type contained none of the forms of pneumonia present in the World War epidemic.

However hundreds of men in army cantonments were placed in hospitals and precautions were set up among the civilian population. Doctors mostly ordered rest and sleep.

Right at the moment, there is no sure way of controlling influenza, according to the public health service. Medical science is better than in 1918, however, in at least one cause—the virus which causes the malady has been isolated.

SUPERLATIVES ... of the week

Newest—A concave screen is going on the market for movie theaters. It is designed to give a three-dimensional effect to ordinary films. Most Forgetful—Atlanta, Ga., forgot about an election day. The liquor stores opened for business and almost everyone forgot to vote. It was the municipal general election and primaries are what count.

School Days

LONDON, ENGLAND.—A narrow schoolboy laughingly holding parts of a German incendiary bomb which had fallen on the famous English school during a recent air raid. Slight damage was done to the school's museum, which houses many British relics.

LIFE JOBS: At the Top

Resignations of Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes and Associate Justice James McReynolds from the Supreme court are expected shortly after the inauguration. It has been gossip in the capital for weeks that Hughes offered his resignation, but was prevailed upon by the President to withhold it until after the campaign.

The appointments, which are for life, are greatly sought after by lawyers who regard it as the highest honor that can come to their professions. Many have been mentioned for the two places, but there is some indication the chief justice place may be filled from members now sitting, either Mr. Justice Stone or Mr. Justice Douglas. If such would happen, the President could make three appointments instead of two. For the other places there has been mention of Senator Minton of Indiana, who was defeated in the recent campaign; Leon Henderson of the SEC, and Attorney General Jackson. Appointment of Jackson might raise to cabinet status Francis Biddle, now solicitor general.

NAMES ... in the news

Prisoner—Mrs. Elizabeth Deegan, clerk in the U. S. embassy, was taken into custody by German secret police in Paris. The granddaughter of the former senator from North Carolina was accused of assisting British officers escape occupied territory.

Citizen—In 1936 Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of the "Great Commoner" and minister to Denmark, married Capt. Boerge Rohde, gentleman-in-waiting to Denmark's King Christian X. Now in Lewisburg, W. Va., the former commander of the king's life guards has taken the oath of allegiance to the United States. He said he adopted citizenship because on other country in the world guarantees such freedom.

Romance—Diego Rivera, Mexican muralist, was married. Cupid shot him in a duel with Freda Kohla, who, incidentally, was the artist's third wife, from whom he was divorced in 1939.

TRAVELERS: Sea and Air

President Roosevelt studied the Caribbean defense situation first hand, on the ground. On the U. S. S. Tuscaloosa he visited French-owned Martinique, British-owned Antigua in the Leeward islands, as well as American territory.

The duke and duchess of Windsor reversed that schedule, coming from the Caribbean Bahamas, where the former king is governor, to Miami, Fla. The voyage was entirely informal and was to give the duchess an opportunity to visit a dentist.

Col. William J. Donovan, wartime commander of the "Fighting Sixty Ninth," was a passenger on the European-bound Clipper plane under the name "Donald Williams." Last July Colonel Donovan visited England mysteriously just before the swap of U. S. destroyers for British air bases in the Western hemisphere was announced. On this trip his destination is unknown and his mission un-revealed.

MISCELLANY:

Turkish newspapers reported that approximately 200 Jewish refugees bound from Bulgaria to Palestine were drowned when their ship broke to pieces in rough seas near Istanbul, Turkey.

After 55,000 uneventful trips on the Chicago-Cleveland route, a United Airlines Mailliner with 16 people aboard crashed at the Chicago airport during dirty weather. Ten were killed, six injured.

For 10 years a gray-haired man lived in Johnson City, Tenn., raised a family, obtained a splendid reputation and became a member of the police force. Then it was revealed he was E. E. Sapp, wanted by Texas police after his escape on a 99-year term in connection with murder of his first wife. Fingerprints in another case trapped him.

Evening Program
Fireworks; general skating; crowning of Carnival Queen.

No Admission Charge

No charge will be made for the winter sport events, including the carnival. The program is part of a general "winter sports" promotional movement which has been underway in the lakes region for the past year or two, and has met with the support of resort owners and business men alike. Its purpose is two-fold—to provide facilities for healthful outdoor recreation for people of all ages, and to acquaint the general public with the enjoyment that may be had in the great winter playground of the lakes region.

Form Association
In charge of the sports program at Lake Antioch is the Antioch Winter Sports association.

A large committee of Lions club members and interested citizens appointed at a meeting Friday is under the general chairmanship of James McMillen.

William Brook is secretary and treasurer.

The grounds committee consists of Ben R. Burke, Irving Carey, Arthur Trieger and Carl Barthel.

In charge of activities are H. A. Smith and Reuben H. Childers.

On the publicity committee are John Horan and H. B. Gaston. Herman Holbek, of the Antioch rescue squad, is supervisor of public safety arrangements.

Resorts Are Active
Winter recreation facilities at the resorts are also popular.

The first falls of snow brought hundreds to the ski slides in the Wilmet hills. Steitz and Hardman's on Bluff lake will again have the toboggan slides and other facilities that met with much favor last year. At Haling's and other places plans are being made to keep the ice clear for skating.

In general, winter sports seem to be "catching on" around the lakes.
